Contract for mowing municipal lawns and cemeteries

*see attachment for Bragg's suggested revisions

"The hand-written sentence mid page is: Unless you talk to owner surrounding the cemetery. Then you have permission to put over wall or where they also put debris." The revised letter was accepted by a vote of the Select Board members.

New Business:

Mowing, etc. – 126 Main St.- Yard is very overgrown

Hinshaw will see if he can locate someone to mow.

Election – TODAY

Town Meeting. The discussion still wavers between in the school gym or outside in parking lot. Some residents say they will not attend if it is inside. Outside presents many variable due to rain, heat, bugs.

Volunteer – between now and August 7 – there were no know opportunities in the Town Office or the Fire Department.

Old Business:

Boston Post Cane – Mrs. Chamerlain unfortunately passed away shortly after she became the oldest resident of Sumner. The Boston Post cane will be passed along to Vernon Bradeen sometime in the fall.
